We would like to invite you to submit a paper to the workshop:

A DYNAMIC ECONOMIC AND MONETARY UNION

The workshop will run for 2 days and will take place on June 18-19, 2020 in Barcelona.

Brief description of the workshop

The workshop is on new theoretical and applied research on financial, fiscal and monetary policies (& institutions) that can strengthen the euro area, as well as other economies, as to make them more resilient to financial, economic and social crises.

Specific objectives include, but are not restricted to: (i) the value of sovereign debt and its sustainability, (ii) union-wide risk-sharing mechanisms, (iii) stabilization policies in a currency union, (iv) rules and institutional mechanisms for controlling macroeconomic and financial weaknesses and imbalances, (v) banking union and banking reforms, and (vi) the inequality legacy and fiscal and monetary policies in heterogeneous societies and unions.

The Keynote speakers for the workshop are:

- Nobu Kiyotaki (Princeton University)
- José Víctor Ríos Rull (University of Pennsylvania)

The deadline for submissions is February 28, 2020. To submit a paper, please use this link <https://app-summerforum.barcelonagse.eu>. Submissions should include either a full paper or an extended abstract with the main results. Authors chosen to present papers will be notified approximately by mid-March. A preliminary program will be announced by mid-April.

Please note that the Barcelona Summer Forum is a series of independent workshops. When you submit your paper, you will be able to see the topics and dates of other workshops that will take place within the Summer Forum. The same paper cannot be submitted to more than one workshop, but you are welcome to submit a different paper to another workshop.

There is no registration fee, and meals during the workshop will be provided for participants. The workshop organization will cover reasonable accommodation and travel expenses to speakers.

The workshop is funded by the Pierre Werner Chair of the European University Institute (EUI) and the European Stability Mechanism (ESM).
